Cavriago, May 20 2010

Landi Renzo At Dealer Day 2010

Cavriago (RE), May 20 2010 – Landi Renzo will be back at Dealer Day, an important event in Verona bringing together key players directly or indirectly involved in the automobile distribution business.

With more than 30 workshops and 7000 square metres of display space, the event will bring together representatives of the industry May 26 and 27 to discuss market scenarios and innovation, while a dealer meeting will be held on the afternoon of May 25.

As a key player in alternative fuels, the Landi Renzo Group will have its own stand at the event where it will welcome those of the 3000 visitors expected to attend the event who wish to learn more about the important issue of ecological mobility.

Landi Renzo is a world leader in LPG and methane components and supply systems for automotive drives.

The company, based in Cavriago (Reggio Emilia) and boasting more than 50 years' experience in the field, is characterised by high growth of revenues and internationalisation, and is now present in more than 50 countries, with exports generating almost 50% of its sales.

Landi Renzo S.p.A. made its debut on the Star segment of the Italian Stock Exchange in June 2007.
